

Support Team Challenge – Help Us Raise $30,000!

Are you aware that an estimated eleven million adults in the U.S. are illiterate in English?

Since 1998, The Literacy Connection has hosted an annual trivia bee competition to raise funds to further its mission to help adults and families reach their literacy goals. Thanks to many businesses and teams, we raised $17,500 in profits in 2013. 2014 is a big year for us—we'll be celebrating our 17th Annual Trivia Bee Fundraiser and 30 years of providing literacy services to adults and families.

Support our Trivia Bee Fundraiser with Team Challenge—a friendly competition between participating teams to see which team and individual can raise the most funds for literacy! Support your favorite member or team!
